3 Watch the extract again and answer the following questions in your own words.

- What does Matthew Macfayden like about the etiquette of Jane Austen's time?
- Give two reasons why the dance was so important as a social occasion.
- Why was it a significant moment when Darcy helped Elizabeth into the carriage?

4 Visual activity.

- Matthew Macfayden is 'on set' as he speaks. What can you see in the background?
- In the dance scene, although Elizabeth and Darcy are still cold with each other how can we tell that there is a 'chemistry' developing between them?

5 Dancing today: discuss in small groups the following and then compare your answers with the rest of the class.

- How important is 'the dance' today as a way of meeting people?
- Do young people still dance together?
- What is the accepted etiquette of courting today among teenagers. How do you attract the opposite sex?
- Do you think 'breaking the ice' today is easier, more difficult or just the same as in Jane Austen's time?
- How acceptable is physical contact in public in your country? Do you think it is the same in all countries? Use the Internet to find out.
