

PART 5

VIEWING

- 1 The 'Christmas Truce' is also shown in a famous film about World War I called Oh! What a Lovely War.

Watch the clip. Which moment does it show – the night of Christmas Eve or the morning of Christmas Day?
- 2 The clip uses different shots: long shots, medium shots and close-ups.

Look at the pictures.

Write 'long shot', 'medium shot' or 'close-up' for each picture.

Oh! What a Lovely War, UK, 1969, directed by Richard Attenborough and starring Wendy Allnutt, Colin Farrell and Malcolm McFee.

ANALYSING

- ### 3 Why does the director use different shots, do you think?

RESPONDING

- 4 Watch a History Channel documentary on the 'Christmas Truce' from 'The Documentary Site' on YouTube at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6AHZ767PzgM> .
What more did you learn about the truce?