11 Imagine you attended the last Olympics in London for a few days. Write a blog post for each of your days, describing the event you saw that particular day and the things you did in London.

12 Role play. Work in pairs.

Student A: imagine you are in London for the Olympics for five days. Decide what you've seen and what you are going to see, prepare to talk about your experiences in London. Then answer the journalist's questions.

Student B: take the role of the interviewer. Prepare some questions to ask your partner about his or her stay in London for the Olympics, then do the interview.

13 Three days in London. You and a group of friends have decided to go the Olympics in London from 11-14 August. You have 500 euros to spend each. You want to attend at least one Olympic event (you decide which) and need to stay in accommodation for three nights. You will also need to find a flight. Use the Internet to check prices of flights and accommodation as well as possible places where you could eat. Decide what other things you would like to do during the stay apart from attending the Olympic event.
